"It is likely to take its place at once among the great biographies."—The Times.

"The book will doubtless take its rank in the first class of biographies."—Morning Post.

"A masterpiece of modern biography."—Observer.

"This really great biography."—Saturday Review.

NEW IMPRESSION

THE LIFE OF CARDINAL NEWMAN. By WILFRID WARD. With Numerous Portraits. 2 vols, 8vo, 36s. net (postage 6d.)

"The work is nobly done. Mr Ward's name is a guarantee for that. No other man in England could have written Newman's life so well. . . . In this book we seem to breathe the air in which Newman lived and worked, and Mr Ward has caught the clearness and force and breadth of the great Cardinal himself. The book is thus one which will take rank with the great biographies of the language."—Church Times.

"Mr Wilfrid Ward's two fascinating volumes. . . . An admirable study of a great soul in all its strength and in all its weakness; a study in which, to quote the familiar words of Horace, 'the life of the venerable man is exhibited to us as in a votive picture.'"—Mr W. S. Lilly in the Nineteenth Cent.

"Only the smallest selection can be made of the thoughts this great book stirs. One word must be devoted to a thankful felicitation of Mr Ward upon the perfect achievement of his immense task."—Father Waggett in the Cambridge Review.

"Mr Wilfrid Ward is to be heartily congratulated on the admirable way in which he has accomplished his task of writing the life of Cardinal Newman."—Catholic Times.

"Of the book's merits as an artistic production, we may predict that it is likely to rank high in the general literature of the country as the biography of a great Englishman, but as an accession to the history of the Catholic Revival, and a vindication of the leader who took so notable a part in promoting it, it will be of inestimable value to Catholic readers."—The Month.

TWO NEW BOOKS BY MGR P. BATIFFOL

THE CREDIBILITY OF THE GOSPEL. Translated by the Rev. G. C. H. Pollen, S.J. Crown 8vo, 4s. 6d. net (postage 4d.)

The object of this work is to show that the most recent researches of Higher Critics confirm the Historic certainty of the Life of Christ which is found in the New Testament.

PRIMITIVE CATHOLICISM. Translated from the Fifth French Edition, revised by the Author. 8vo, 12s. 6d. net (postage 5d.).

This work (which bears the imprimatur of the Vicar-General) studies "the formation of the Church in so far as it is a visible universal society built upon the framework of a rule of faith and a hierarchy" down to the time of St Cyprian.

"A controversial asset of quite exceptional value."—The Month.

LEO XIII AND ANGLICAN ORDERS. By Viscount Halifax. 8vo, 12s. 6d. net (postage 5d.).

The object of this book is to give an account of the attempt connected with the names of Lord Halifax and the Abbé Portal, made in the years 1894, 1895 and 1896, to put an end to the schism which since the sixteenth century has separated the Church of England from the Holy See. The story is told in all its fullness by reprinting the correspondence which passed at the time, with only such explanatory remarks as are necessary to make the letters and other documents connected with the correspondence intelligible.

THE PRICE OF UNITY. By B. W. Maturin, formerly of Cowley St John, Oxford. Crown 8vo, 5s. net (postage 4d.).

Father Maturin's new book treats of the questions in controversy between Rome and the English Church. The author devotes considerable space to the difficulties involved in any great change, and deals particularly with some dangers and safeguards for those who contemplate a change of their religious position.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI: a Biography. By Johannes Joergensen. Translated by T. O'Conor Sloane. With Illustrations. 8vo, 12s. 6d. net (postage 5d.).

NEW FORM ORDO FOR 1912

MESSRS BURNS & OATES have now ready the "New Form" General Ordo, 1912.

The price per copy of this special issue is 1s. net (postage 1d.). It demonstrates, by an ingenious typographical arrangement, the easy use of the revised form of the Divine Office.

The changes prescribed by the Holy Father become obligatory in 1913; but wide advantage will be taken of the privilege of an immediate adoption of the revisions.

MESSRS BURNS & OATES can now supply the new edition of the Psalter, together with the rules laid down by the Holy See for its recital.

The contents are set out in the form of a Totum, and the volume reproduces in every respect the Psalter that has just been issued by the Vatican Press.

New and Recent Books from Messrs Herbert and Daniel's List

EVOLUTION IN THE PAST. By Henry R. Knipe, F.L.S., etc., Author of "Nebula to Man." With 50 Illustrations by Alice B. Woodward and 6 Landscapes by Ernest Bucknall. 12s. 6d. net.

"To anyone who desires to read the story of life upon our planet, as revealed by the record of the rocks and interpreted in the light of evolution, it would be difficult to recommend a safer or more pleasant guide than Mr Knipe. His story is illustrated by many excellent plates, mainly by Miss Alice Woodward, who happily unites much scientific knowledge with artistic ability."—Athenaeum.

A non-technical and popular appreciation of the beneficent discoveries of the late LORD LISTER.

MODERN SURGERY AND ITS MAKING. A Tribute to Listerism. By C. W. Saleby, M.D., F.R.S., Edin. 10s. 6d. net.

"Whatever subject Dr Saleby touches he vitalizes and humanizes; he has produced a book equally fascinating in manner and matter, equally fascinating in the broad humanity of its discourse and in the sincerity of its note of personal appeal. There is not a page that is not interesting and enlightening and suggesting."—Observer.

LIFE AND LETTERS OF JOHN LINGARD. By Martin Haile and Edwin Bonney. 12s. 6d. net.

"An exceptionally interesting record of a very learned, a very eminent and a very excellent man."—The Nation.

"In this volume we have a really comprehensive and reliable life of Lingard at last, which Catholics ought to value very highly."—Catholic Herald.

THE LIFE OF ST TERESA. Based upon the standard French Biography by a Carmelite Nun. By Alice, Lady Lovat. With an Introduction by Mgr R. H. Benson. 10s. 6d. net.

"It is impossible to speak in terms of too high praise of the manner in which Lady Lovat has discharged the labour of love and reverence which she undertook, while Monsignor Benson's preface is a veritable synopsis of the Church's teaching and doctrine on the subject of the spiritual life."—Irish Catholic.

"It is, perhaps, the completest life of the Saint that has yet been written."—Sunday Times.

MUSIC IN POETRY AND PROSE. Edited by Ada M. Ingpen. 3s. 6d. net.

"An anthology, delightfully planned and produced."—Observer.

"An anthology full of good things."—Tablet.

AN ANTHOLOGY OF IMAGINATIVE PROSE. Edited by Professor R. P. Cowl. 3s. 6d. net.

"This is a genuine anthology, classified according to a method finely selective. There is an excellent and succinct preface."—Athenaeum.

Two Striking New Volumes of the Recent Library.

MARY WOLLSTONECRAFT. Edited by Camilla Jebb. 2s. 6d. net.

"Miss Jebb's little volume, with its excellent biographical introduction, and its well-chosen extracts from the letters as well as the writings of Mary Wollstonecraft, gives in a brief compass a good idea of her remarkable personality."—Athenaeum.

BLAISE DE MONLUC. Edited by A. W. Evans. 2s. 6d. net.

"As an autobiographer Monluc is wonderful, lively, often amusing, but always the bluff, honest, incorruptible, rugged, and war-stained old Gascon."—Mr Thomas Seccombe in the Daily News.

FICTION, 6s. each.

THE HEART OF A RUSSIAN. Translated from the Russian of M. Y. Lermontov by J. H. Wisdom and Marr Murray.

"This novel, one of the masterpieces of Russian literature, and already translated into nine European languages, is now for the first time adequately placed before the English reader."

PENSION KRAUS. By Agnes Blundell.

A NEW HUMORIST.

BUSINESS RIVALS. By F. Harris Deans.

CROSS-IN-HAND FARM. By Viola Meynell.

"This Romance has qualities of a rare charm, and its old world atmosphere is as sweet as lavender."—Daily Telegraph.

TO AUTHORS, PUBLISHERS, & OTHERS

AN AUTHOR revising his work, an editor considering a contribution, or a publisher's reader reading a literary creation in order to recommend its acceptance or rejection, each wants to know how the thing "will look in print."

Consequently author, editor and publisher appreciate "PRINTYPE." "PRINTYPE" is the latest style of type with which the Oliver Typewriter is fitted.—To read a literary creation produced in Oliver "PRINTYPE" is, as it were, reading "the printed page."

W. W. OULESS' PORTRAIT OF CARDINAL NEWMAN

Reproduced in Photogravure. Unframed, 5s.
Framed in Oak, 10s. 6d.

THE only previous reproduction of this, undoubtedly the greatest portrait of Cardinal Newman, was issued as an engraving in 1881, at a high price and in a very limited edition. The passing of time has added enormously to the value and interest of a portrait known hitherto to only comparatively few. "The finest thing of its kind ever produced."—The World.

This portrait of Cardinal Newman was painted by Mr Ouless, A.R.A., from sittings given by the Cardinal immediately before and after his elevation to the Cardinalate. The figure is shown to the waist; the face is between three-quarters and profile; and the head is slightly and characteristically inclined forward. The expression of the face, like the attitude, is quiet and unconscious; yet in its repose it combines thought, happiness, compassion and pathos. "In the art of portraiture," says a leading article in The Times, "no school is superior to our own. The great names of Reynolds and Gainsborough rank with the highest, and in our own days portraits might be mentioned—especially that of Cardinal Newman, by Mr Ouless—to prove that in this branch of art the present generation has not lost its power."

The size of the actual picture, without the mount, is 12 by 9 inches.

Uniform with the above, an exquisite reproduction of George Richmond's portrait of CARDINAL NEWMAN at the time of his conversion.
